

The Satellite to host:

Old Felton Film Festival

by local historian, Randall Brown

See movies made in SLV!

FREE (donations accepted)
7 p.m. Friday, July 24
Satellite Telework Centers
6265 Highway 9 in Felton
www.thesatelliteinc.com . 831.222.2100

Local historian Randall Brown will host a summer series of silent films shot in and around Felton and Boulder Creek, beginning with Mary Pickford in “Romance of the Redwoods” on July 24.

“Not too many people realize that the San Lorenzo Valley was a hotbed of film production at the turn of the century,” Brown said. “A number of well-known silent film actors liked to get away from Hollywood and enjoyed shooting films in the Santa Cruz mountains.”

Schedule for Films:

- Friday, July 24 – “Romance of the Redwoods” – 1917
Starring Mary Pickford
- Friday, August 7 – “Blue Blazes Rawden” – 1918
Starring William S. Hart, and “Scenes from Soul of the Beast with Anna May the Elephant”
- Friday, August 21 – “Rubber Tires” – 1925
Starring Bessie Love.

